LCHA senior plan on again

It took only a week and several phone calls to the village hall from dissatisfied residents to cause the Antioch Village Board to do a complete turnabout on its position towards future senior citizen housing in the village.

At a special board meeting on Monday,

Sept. 14, the board rescinded its previous decision to go for 100 percent senior housing and accept the Lake County Housing Authority's (LCHA) dual proposal of combined senior and low income housing.

Trustee Claudette Skvarce, who had led the previous week's veto to dump LCHA's proposal because of the 20 unit low income inclusion, based on a survey she had made, cast the single negative vote.

Trustee Ron Cunningham was absent. Trustees Vern Barnstable, Rod White, Edgar Simonson and William Seemann voted to go with the LCHA proposal, seemingly the only way to get funding for senior housing.

White had cast the only negative vote when the balloting for 100 percent senior housing was cast at the Sept. 7 board meeting.

Seemann, who had seconded that motion, said at Sept. 14 meeting that he had regretted doing so almost immediately.

Skvarce predicted regrets for not trying for the total senior housing.

The ball now seems to be in the hands of the LCHA and Developer Don Samuelson,

Father Johnson dies after long illness

Rev. Francis L. Johnson, 62, pastor of St. Peters' Church, died on Wednesday, Sept. 16 at the St. Benedict Home, Niles, after a long illness.

Father Johnson, who was pastor of St. Peters' for nine years and served there previously as an assistant, was born on August 19, 1919, in Chicago where he attended St. Leo Grade and High School.

He was ordained on Feb. 24, 1945, at St. Mary of the Lake Seminary.

Among the Chicago area parishes that Father Johnson served at were: St. Gall's, St. Sebastian's, St. Paul of the Cross, Our Lady Mother of the Church and St. Anthony's.

He is survived by two brothers: Robert, Palos Heights and Paul, Charlotte, N.C.; one sister, Mrs. Margaret Murray, Bethesda, Maryland; one aunt, Mrs. Catherine M. Hayes and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by one sister, Mary E. Devine.

REV. FRANCIS JOHNSON

Funeral services with the Mass of the Christian Burial will be held at 10 a.m., Tuesday, Sept. 22, at St. Peters' Church.

Interment will be at St. John's Cemetery, Twin Lakes.

He will lie in state in the church, on Monday, Sept. 21, from 2 to 9 p.m.

At 8 p.m., an historical wake service will be held.

In lieu of flowers, the family has requested all memorial donations be made to St. Peters or the St. Benedict Home, Niles.

District 34 tax levy up

The board of Antioch Grade School District 34 met on Tuesday, Sept. 15 and unanimously gave their approval to the proposed 1981-82 school budget.

This approval should result in the levy of $2,476 per 100 of assessed evaluation, approximately three cents higher than last year's levy.

School Superintendent Donald Skidmore raises the possibility of a lower levy if the assessed evaluation should rise as it did during the 1980-81 school year.

This levy is for the last half of the 1981-82 school year and the first half of the 1982-83 school year.

Skidmore said that the raise over last year was caused because the assessed evaluation grew and lowered that levy, adding that hopefully the same thing could happen this time.

In 1977 the levy was 2.57; in 1978 it went up to 2.66 and then in 1979 it shifted back to 2.57, the same tax levied in 1977.

New approved budget items are: education fund, $1,750,000 operation, building and maintenance, $282,500; transportation fund, $169,500; working cash, $56,500; Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund, $90,000; fire prevention, safety, environmental and energy conservation, $56,500 and insurance, $50,000.

ANOTHER FATAL DRINKING ACCIDENT ON "STRIP 83" — Rte. 83, just north of the Illinois-Wisconsin border, was the scene of another fatal accident caused by "under-21" drinker from Illinois, at 12:15 a.m., Saturday, Sept. 19. First picture, left, is remains of Firebird driven by Norman K. Jamin, 19, Gurnee, who died after suffering massive chest and head injuries when he was thrown from his car and it rolled over him after being struck in rear by car in picture two, driven by William Gross, 20, Waukegan, who was cited for driving while intoxicated. Gross continued south in northbound lane, striking car shown in third picture, driven by Thomas Strong, 60, Kansasville, who received chest and leg injuries. One person was killed and six injured in one of many accidents, happening around the same time, that took all of western county rescue squads out of other action. Annual Bike-A-Thon slated for Sept. 27

Pres Reckers, chairman of the Antioch Cancer Society Bike-A-Thon, to be held Sunday, Sept. 27, says that the response from children and adults for their rider entry blanks has been excellent, indicating that this year's event could be the "best ever".

This year's route in Antioch will again cover seven miles, starting at the Antioch Fire Station on Orchard St., west to David St., south to Lake St., west to Tiffany Rd., north to North Ave., east to Deep Lake Rd., south to Little Silver Lake Rd., and west to starting point. (see map).

Participants are encouraged to ride the route as many times as they are able, but no one will be able to pass through checkpoint one, the Fire Station, after 3 p.m.

The Bike-A-Thon starts at 9 a.m. and riders must begin only from the first checkpoint at the Fire Station. Other checkpoints are the Antioch Evangelical Free Church on Tiffany Rd., and the Atwood residence on Deep Lake Rd.

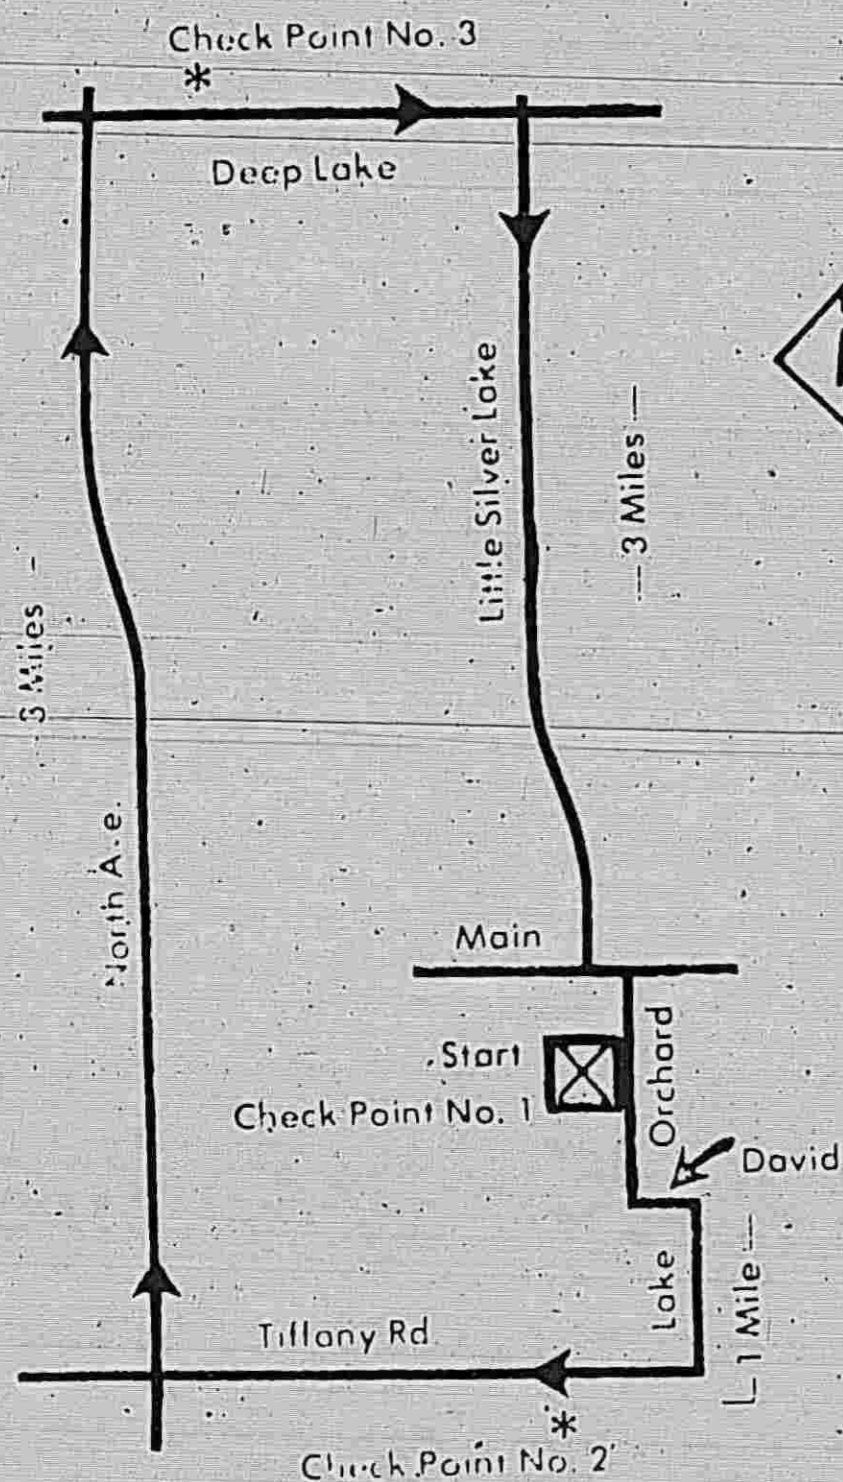

Entry blanks may be obtained from all area schools, the State Bank of Antioch, Jack's Four Squires, Antioch Library, and The Village Hall.

Prizes to be awarded to the top riders are a ten-speed bike, donated by the State Bank of Antioch and T-shirts donated by Jack's Four Squires will be awarded riders who turn in $50.00 or more in collected sponsor donations.

Antioch's annual Bike-A-

Thon has become increasingly successful each year, due to the support and personal involvement of many members of the community, including the Antioch Fire Department, Police Department, and Antioch Jaycees.

To view sight machine

The officers and members of Rebekah District Association Three of which, Lakeside 82, Antioch, is a member, would like to invite the members of the community of Antioch to view, and see a demonstration of the "Visualtek" machine, which is a video system that enables people with low vision to easily and independently read and write.

Dan Lee will give a demonstration of two of these machines. There will be about 20 minutes of film and a question and answer period after the film.

The members of the Rebekah Association feel that this is a most worthwhile project to participate in and inform the public about.

It will be held at the American Legion Hall, Ida Ave., Antioch, at 8 p.m., Wednesday, Sept. 23. This program is open to the public, so come and bring a friend.

First aid session set at ACHS

The Lake County District of the American Red Cross announces a course in Standard First Aid and Personal Safety to be offered at Antioch High School, 1133 Main St., Antioch.

Classes begin on Monday, Sept. 14, and will meet six consecutive Mondays from 7-10 p.m.

This course is jointly sponsored by the College of Lake County. To register, call (312) 223-1111.

Flees from jail or marriage Wisconsin escapee caught by Antioch Police Dept.

On Friday, Sept. 18, the Antioch police were flagged down by a Kenosha cab driver because his passenger had no money to pay for a ride from Kenosha to Antioch.

Lt. Tom Fisher questioned the passenger at the scene, North Ave. and Main St., getting suspicious when the male subject, who said his name was Russel Braatz, gave a birth date and age that didn't match.

The subject broke into a run, traveling south down the Soo Line railroad tracks, where Lt. Fisher lost him in the fields.

A check with the Kenosha County Sheriff's Dept. revealed that a man fitting the subject's description had escaped from Kenosha County at 11:30 a.m., while being transferred to the county courthouse for sentencing for car theft.

The subject was identified as Patrick Baugh, 20, Twin Lakes, who was expected to be sentenced to a three year prison term for auto theft on Friday.

Baugh also planned to be married in the Kenosha County Courthouse, that same day, before starting his expected prison term.

His girlfriend is employed at Quaker Industries, Ant., a fact that led him to the Antioch area.

The Antioch Police Dept. searched the fields after losing Baugh and alerted Quaker Ind.

At 3:15 p.m. Quaker reported a phone call from a male to Baugh's girlfriend.

According to Fisher a check of public phone booths showed that a telephone call had been made to Quaker Ind. from a phone booth located at Antioch Auto Parts.

Fisher and Sgt. William Kukla went to the area and observed a male running south on the railroad tracks. They waylaid him at Hickory St. and the tracks.

Baugh was charged with theft of services and resisting arrest and taken to Lake County Jail where he awaits extradition to face charges in Kenosha County.

Senior plan on again—designer of Cedar Village, Lake Villa, the last senior citizen project in the area to receive funding.

What's happened to the 90 unit low income, handicapped, senior housing project put into the works by the Haley Administration, being handled by Developers Palmer, France, Green and King?

According to Mayor Ray Toft, who claims to have known that the try for total senior housing wouldn't work, "He feels that those developers are out of the picture."

Toft went on to say that he believed it was now up to Samuelson to draw up plans for the unit development and submit it to Illinois

Housing Development Agency (IHDA) for approval.

Reportedly the board will write a letter to IDHA promising 100 percent cooperation with Samuelson.

Toft says that he believes that Samuelson will try to have the Housing and Urban Development approval of a Section 8 subsidy, already granted to the previous project, reinstated for the new one.

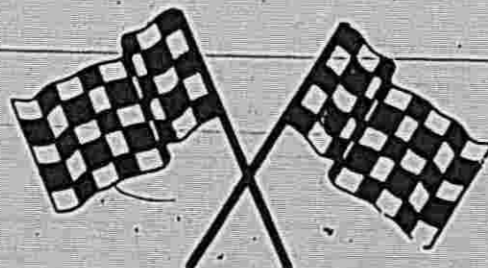

"Samuelson moved fast in Lake Villa," Toft said as he stated that if IHDA and everyone else co-operates the project, planned for 3.8 acres located off of Main St., near Williams Park, may be finished inside of two years.

Carole recommends new child care book

by CAROLE RISKA

I have had the good luck to have a terrific book passed on to me by Mrs. Sally Ericson, a friend and neighbor, who has become interested in a program that recommends methods of bringing parents and their children together with the least amount of problems, bringing the most pleasure to both age groups.

"Parents Effectiveness training", (P.E.T.) is written by Dr. Thomas Gordon, and it is considered by experts in child psychology to rank as high as Spock and Gesell, who are renowned for their studies of child, adolescent, and teenage behavior.

Since I have never been too enthusiastic about looking for hidden meanings or beating around the bush, I must admit I was a little skeptical, but after reading the book and testing some of the methods my success amazed me.

P.E.T. is a good common-sense approach in dealing with kids and some of their problems, big and small.

Furthermore the book states that you and your children are never too old for these methods to work. In fact, most of the suggested methods are aimed at teenagers or young adults.

If parents are willing to heed the opinions of law enforcement agencies and be more involved with their kids, this book is a good place to start with how to do it with pleasure.

I suggest that you call the Antioch Library to see if they can obtain copies, or see if they can recommend a way of getting a copy elsewhere.

The book is: "P.E.T.", "Parent Effectiveness Training" by Dr. Thomas Gordon.

BIKE-A-THON CHECKPOINT — This is checkpoint three in the Antioch American Cancer Bike-A-Thon. Antioch Jaycee members Terry Dayton, O.J. Tempel and Bill Stanley are busy marking riders' checkpoint cards during the 1980 Bike-A-Thon, validating that they have ridden the seven mile route. This year's Bike-A-Thon begins at 9 a.m., Sunday, Sept. 27, at the Antioch Fire Station on Orchard Street. Applications and sponsor sheets are available at all area schools, Antioch Library, State Bank of Antioch, Four Squires and village hall.

The Time Machine

50 YEARS AGO: SEPTEMBER 24, 1931

Through the efforts of the local librarian, Miss Mary Stanley and S.M. Wallace, the library here has recently been presented with a valuable set of books entitled, "Progress of Nations," the gift of the Art Institute Chicago.

A representative of the state department of public health is expected this week to investigate the cause of the prevalence of scarlet fever in Hickory neighborhood, which for the second time within the year has caused the closing of school there.

Mr. and Mrs. David Atchinson and daughter, Mrs. Amy Rathburn, formerly of Libertyville, moved their household effects to Antioch, occupying the Little residence on Orchard Street. Mrs. Rathburn is a graduate nurse. She has announced that she will practice her profession in this community.

The department of vocational agriculture of the Antioch High School has the largest enrollment since the establishment of the course in 1920. There are now forty-four boys studying soils, crops, and farm mechanics. Two others are expected to enroll soon.

As one of the features of a spectacular air demonstration, an attack on Ft. Sheridan from the air will be made Saturday afternoon at the Army post.

30 YEARS AGO: SEPTEMBER 27, 1951

Mr. and Mrs. Onno Haak, announce that Mr. Fred Gros and Dr. R. Bywell will occupy one store room in the new building they are erecting on Lake Street. The Haaks expect to open their new bicycle shop by October 15.

"The Tom-Tom," a name suggested by Ann McMillen, has been chosen for the new Antioch Township High School Newspaper to be published soon. Second place went to Ralph Stokes for his suggestion "Sequoia Smoke Signals," and third place to Kay Stollenwerk for "Cardinal Flash."

Another delay in the shipment of steel has held up work on the high school building and Principal R.C. Edmundson said that it will be Nov. 1 before the shops can be in use.

10 YEARS AGO: SEPTEMBER 22, 1971

Five lay personnel were hired, at a combined cost equal to the average salary of one teacher ($11,000), to supervise the commons, freshmen homerooms, the halls, the resource center and the school parking lots to relieve the teaching staff of such non-teaching duties.

The Antioch Post Office, with the help of the Rainbow Girls, recently sent packages to 28 boys stationed overseas.

Timothy O'Connell is the gentle, small of stature, jovial, friendly man behind the counter in Reeves Drug Store. Tim, who was born in Cork, Ireland, found his way to "The Hub of the Lakes Region" in 1934. He started at Reeves in 1947. Tim says "I was born in Cork, Ireland just three miles from the Blarney Stone. Kissing stones is quite the folly; kissing girls is twice as jolly."

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

One of Antioch's smartest youngsters, Mary Margaret Miles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Miles, was just awarded the Alepopo Grotto scholarship in a ceremony held at the alumnae lounge of the memorial union hall down at the University of Missouri-Columbia.

This award is just the frosting on the cake made up of many previous honors: National Honor society, dean's honor list and the American Cancer Society Scholarship.

The Stetcher family has really gone military lately with John Stetcher's brother, Tech. Sgt. Alan C. Elliot, and Elliot's wife, Staff Sgt. Katherine Elliot, both inventory management supervisors with the 20th Supply Squadron, now on duty at RAF Upper Heyford, England.

Speaking of Uncle Sam's boys, Marine Lance Cpl. Daniel Reband, son of Robert and Ruth Reband, Rte. 1, Box 231, Antioch, has reported for duty with headquarters and service battalion, at the Marine Corps base, Camp Pendleton, Calif.

Old Annie Mae can hardly wait for the two big events coming up this weekend in the village.

I'm going to work off those pounds I intend to gain at the Rotary's Barbeque and Auction, Saturday, by riding that seven mile course in the Cancer Bike-A-Thon on Sunday.

I see that an Antioch trained athlete, Paul Heffernan, scored a goal for Western Michigan University's soccer team, helping that team get a 5-1 win over St. Thomas College.

When I think about it

It's not what you do but where you do it

by GLORIA DAVIS

Judicial systems the world over mete out punishments for breaking their laws in surprisingly varying degrees.

One might interpret this to mean that wrongdoers are being punished, not so much because of the seriousness of the crime they have committed, but rather by the locale and sometimes the political climate in which they commit it.

For example, a few years ago in southeastern Wisconsin, a woman bludgeoned her husband to death as he napped on the livingroom couch.

She never denied the deed and spent less than a year in prison before being released on probation.

Some attributed the lady's light sentence to the fact that the prosecuting attorney, who was up for re-election, found it an unpopular time to ask for a stiff penalty for the mother of five, who was pregnant with her sixth child.

The timing was bad because the wife of a high ranking official had just gotten off lightly after shooting one of her husband's many girlfriends.

The voters might not have liked seeing a "probably harassed and over worked housewife" punished more than someone with political clout.

In the same state, but a different county, another wife was sentenced to 10 years in prison for shooting a husband that used her for a punching bag so often that she was in fear of her life.

And it's a known fact that youthful traffic offenders would prefer to see that flashing red light and hear the scream of a police siren in Lake or Kenosha County rather than in Walworth or McHenry County.

The latter two are well known for their stiff fines and penalties, while plea bargaining is said to be a favorite legal pastime in the first two.

I read a police report on an out-of-state youth, visiting Walworth County, who wandered outside a bar with a glass of beer in his hand to see what was causing loud noises outside.

He was promptly arrested on the open intoxicant law, even though he was ignorant of it, and spent a weekend in jail, waiting in a long line for arraignment.

Yet just a few miles away, in a neighboring county, there have been many times when the odor of alcohol on a driver's breath and the sight of empty beer cans on a car floor, have at times, failed to bring about the issuance of a citation.

Repeated convictions for theft have drawn little more than wrist slapping for some who knew the right people on the north side of the state border, while just a little way south, over the state line, a young lady whose main fault was the inability to judge the character of new-found friends, was sentenced to two years in prison when she was caught sleeping in a "get-away car" ignorant of the fact that these "friends" were robbing a store.

A young man who hit a motorcycle and its rider, left the scene of the accident, leaving the cyclist laying on the street where he was hit and killed by another oncoming motorist.

That county's district attorney was not going to prosecute the person who fled the scene of the accident but, while the hearing on the incident was pending, an election took place and the new district attorney sought and got a conviction, fining and sending the culprit to jail for a year for involuntary manslaughter.

Over 30 years ago, a 17 year old was convicted of the kidnapping and murder of a six year old girl. Her dismembered body was found all over Cook County where the murder was committed.

After a myriad of appeals, this man has earned a law degree while in prison, he still remains in jail.

In another state, a 13 year old boy shot and killed an old man because he refused to give him money and later returned to the scene of the crime to loot the premises.

He received a little psychiatric treatment and was returned to society.

Shouldn't a set standard of punishment apply everywhere when it comes to the commission of particular major crimes or should longitude and latitude determine fair punishment?

Christian Scientists host speaker William Breen

"A spiritual perception of reality is at the heart of Christian healing," William C. Breen, C.S.B., of Sacramento, Calif., enlarges on this view of healing in a Christian Science lecture at 8 p.m. on September 25, in the church auditorium, 230 N. West St., Waukegan.

In his lecture titled "Healing Through Spiritual Perception", Breen makes clear that by "spiritual perception" he means something quite different and distinct from "positive thinking or mind over matter."

Christ Jesus' healing works, says the lecturer, set the standard for growing numbers who are making the effort to understand and practice Christian healing. Mr. Breen views Jesus' ministry "not as mere mind over matter," but as the natural result of "Jesus' clear perception of the nature of God and of man's true ideal nature."

"Divine Love" is central to Christian healing, Mr. Breen explains: "To heal spiritually we need to feel and know God's love. Divine Love is the only true source of love. It opens our eyes to see through deceit and enables us to recognize what's genuine and true. Love gives calmness and assurance. Doubts and fears disappear in its presence."

For many years, following service in the U.S. Army and banking management, Breen has devoted full-time to the practice of Christian healing as a public practitioner and teacher of Christian Science. Insights and experiences from this long association with healing through prayer are included in his lecture which will last approximately an hour.

Members of the sponsoring church, First Church of Christ, Scientist, invite all interested persons to the Breen lecture. There is no charge to those attending, nor will a collection be taken.

Miss Fern Orna, second reader will introduce the lecturer.

BEST SUPPORTING ACTRESS — Anne Marie Cina walked away with the best actress in major supporting role at annual awards dinner, held at LaSalette Center, on Saturday, Sept. 12.

For 20 years Antioch's PM&L Theater and its participants have been entertaining local theater going audiences, but they were their own best audience when members of the theater group held their 20th annual awards banquet at the La Salette Center in Twin Lakes on Saturday, Sept. 12 to honor the best of their theatrical breed.

Long time PM&L'ers, Val and Joe Hunley and Ken Smouse, walked away with the groups' highest award for donating exceptional work and time for the betterment of the organization.

After tallying the votes cast by the group's members and season pass holders, the classic "Our Town" took the three top awards: the best show; the best male actor award went to Don Beveroth, for his performance as the stage manager and Jeannie Lindgren, who played Emily in the same production, took top honors in the best actress category. Bruce Stamm won the best actor in a minor supporting role for his rendition of Simon Stimson.

"The Night of the Iguana," also received many accolades with the best actor and actress in major supporting roles going to Tom Hausman who played Nonno and Anne Marie Cina who played Maxine Faulk.

Lillian Allen's version of Judith Felloes gave her the award for best actress in a minor supporting role and Hank Apostol's set won a first, as did George Cina's special effects.

In the younger category, Steve Beno took the award for actor/actress 16 and under for his interpretation of Snout in "A Midsummer's Night Dream" and Tom Hausman's costumes for "Dream" were voted the best.

Another special effects award went to Bill Shershon and the cast of "Dracula".

Dave Carlson received an award for production support for his work on the Bruce Stamm won the best actor in a season's sets.

Sequoits win over Streaks

Antioch's varsity football team swamped the Woodstock 11, 20-0, at game played in Woodstock, on Friday, Sept. 18.

Antioch scored in the first three quarters, blanking the Woodstock Blue Streaks.

With 10:11 minutes left in the first quarter, the Sequoits put eight points on the scoreboard after a 64 yard punt return by Craig Sheedlo. A two point conversion, when Bob Thain passed to Mike Schuenman, made the eight.

Antioch scored again with 10:43 left in the second quarter but failed to make the extra point, making the score 14 to zip.

Mike Kotlinski's 70 yard run took that one over.

Antioch again failed to make the extra point after putting another six points on the board with 5:55 left in the third period.

A Woodstock fumble, Matt Stevens' 39 yard run, a six yard run by Kotlinski, and a three yard touchdown run by George Bessette, were all involved in getting the Sequoits' last six points.

Again the conversion attempt failed.

Bessette gained 28 yards in 14 carries; Stevens-76 yards in four carries; Kotlinski-103 yards in 13 carries; Tom Anderson-four carries for 13 yards and Steve Crutchfield-one carry for two yards.

Offensive Line Coach Del Pechauer was pleased with the improvement of all five of his interior linemen, Chris Vogt, Ralph Boxton, John Lloyd, Ed Jorgensen and Kevin Kovach.

Defensive Coordinator Ted De Rouse was pleased with his boys for holding Woodstock to an 85 yard gain overall.

Next Saturday, Sept. 26, Antioch will take on the Wauconda Bulldogs at home for their Northwest Suburban Conference opener.

Wapon, who is pleased with his team for correcting many mistakes says, "Wauconda plays a sound defense, is a very spirited team and takes advantage of any opportunity. Our job will be to stop their option running and the ability of their quarterback to throw the ball."

Because of the annual state convention in Peoria, the next meeting will be held on Sept. 24, at 8 p.m.

'Carousel's' music comes to Antioch's PM&L Theater

Rodgers and Hammerstein's colorful and rhythmic musical hit, "Carousel," opened last Saturday night at the PM&L Theater, 877 Main Street in Antioch.

"Carousel" will run for another two weekends. The remaining evening performances are scheduled for Friday and Saturday nights, Sept. 25 and 26 and Oct. 2 and 3.

Also, there will be a matinee performance Sunday afternoon, Sept. 27.

Theatergoers unable to attend evening shows have taken increasing advantage of the Sunday matinees, which are also appreciated widely by family groups.

Whichever performance you plan to see, be sure to call (312) 395-3055 to make your reservations. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. for the evening performances and 2:30 p.m. for the Sunday matinee, and you should plan on being at the PM&L box office at least 15 minutes before the show begins.

The PM&L production of "Carousel" is directed by Tom Hausman. The show's music, includes some of Rodgers and Hammerstein's best-known hit songs. Among them are such numbers as "June Is Bustin' out all over," "If I Loved You," and "You Never Walk Alone."

If you have not already made your reservations for this show, you should do so without further delay, as it seems probable that this delightful musical will be playing to full, or nearly full, houses on the next two weekends.
